Our Story

How We Met

We were co-treasurers for our political advocacy group in college, and had to meet regularly. We quickly and easily became very close friends and spent nearly every day talking until we realized that there was a stronger connection than just friendship. After Brian graduated college and moved back to St. Louis, we couldn't go a week without seeing each other. Since then, we have moved two states over to beautiful Colorado, and have been thriving in this new life we have built together. After two years we are happier than we could have ever imagined, and we're ready to take the next step to our happily ever after.

The Proposal

We were visiting Brian's family in Los Angeles, California for the holidays. It was Liz's first plane ride and first time in California, so we spent every single day sight seeing, trying all the best foods in the city, and most importantly, spending time with family. On the day after Christmas, Brian took Liz to experience the magic of Disneyland for the first time. After hours of amazing rides, roller coasters, and long lines, we made it to our reservation at the Blue Bayou. It's a gorgeous restaurant, set in a romantically lit New Orleans "bayou." As soon as we ordered, Brian got down on one knee and pulled out the most amazing ring Liz had ever seen. It was truly a scene from a Disney fairy tale.
